Learning graph
Year 6 – Web page creation

Resources are updated regularly — the latest version is available at:
ncce.io/tcc

This resource is licensed under the Open Government Licence, version 3. For more information on this licence, see ncce.io/ogl

To create a new blank web page

To review an existing website (navigation bars, header)

To recognise components of a web page layout

To change the appearance of text

To add text to a web page

To embed media in a web page

To insert hyperlinks to another site

To set the style of text on a web page

To add web pages to a website

To insert hyperlinks between pages

To recognised the need for a navigation path

To recognise the need for preview pages (different screens / devices)

To preview a web page (different screen sizes)

To insert hyperlinks to content owned by others

To consider the implications of linking to content owned by others

To recognise that web pages are written by people

To recognise that web pages can contain different media types

To recognise that a website is a set of hyperlinked web pages

To recognise the relationship between HTML and visual display

To recognise components of a web page layout

To consider the ownership and use of images (copyright)