Learning graph
Year 5 - Creating media - Video production

To combine filming techniques for a given purpose
To explain the features of video as a visual media format
To identify features of a video recording device or application
To recognise which devices can and can't record video
To use different camera angles
To use pan, tilt and zoom
To determine what scenes will convey your idea
To explain the purpose of a storyboard
To combine filming techniques for a given purpose
To recognise that filming techniques can be used to create different effects
To identify videos can be improved through and reshooting or editing
To identify that videos can be edited on a recording device or on a computer
To decide what changes I will make when editing
To recognise the need to regularly review and reflect on a video project
To choose to reshoot a scene or improve later through editing
To use split, trim and crop to edit a video
To explain the limitations of editing video on a recording device
To use different camera angles
To use pan, tilt and zoom
To explain the purpose of a storyboard

Key:
Concept
Skill

Resources are updated regularly — the latest version is available at www.ncce.io/tcc
This resource is licensed under the Open Government Licence, version 3. For more information on this licence, see www.ncce.io/ogl